

FURTHER AMENDED DIRECTIONS

Fair Work Act 2009

s.225—Enterprise agreement

s.240—Bargaining dispute

Justin Gusset

v

Apple Pty Limited t/a Apple

(AG2022/5615)

Australian Municipal, Administrative, Clerical and Services Union

v

Apple Pty Limited t/a Apple

(B2023/274)

Shop, Distributive and Allied Employees Association

v

Apple Pty Limited t/a Apple

(B2023/278)

JUSTICE HATCHER, PRESIDENT

SYDNEY, 26⁴ APRIL 2023

Application for termination of the Apple Retail Enterprise Agreement 2014 – applications for the Commission to deal with bargaining disputes between Apple Pty Limited and the Australian Municipal, Administrative, Clerical and Services Union, and Apple Pty Limited and the Shop, Distributive and Allied Employees Association.

Further to the directions hearing held yesterday, 30 March 2023:

1. Apple Pty Limited t/a Apple and any party that opposes the application in matter AG2022/5615 (s 225 application) are each to file:
 - (a) an outline of submissions; and
 - (b) any evidence on which they wish to rely in response to the s 225 application

by 5:00 pm (AEST) on Thursday, 25 May 2023.

Note: all submissions and evidence in relation to the s 225 application will be uploaded to the relevant webpage on the Commission's website unless an application for a confidentiality order is made and granted.

2. The applicant, Justin Gusset, and any other party that wishes to reply to material filed pursuant to item 1 of these directions may file:
 - (a) an outline of submissions in reply; and
 - (b) any evidence in reply on which they wish to rely by 5:00 pm (AEST) on Thursday, 8²² June 2023.

3. The s 225 application will be listed for further directions at 9:30 am (AEST) on Monday 26 June 2023.
4. Matters B2023/274 and B2023/278 are allocated to Deputy President Hampton. The Deputy President's chambers will contact parties regarding conference dates in due course.

PRESIDENT

Printed by authority of the Commonwealth Government Printer