The Associate
Vice President Hatcher

Dear Associate

We note the directions, draft program and updated witness list dated 9 March 2016.

In relation to the Hospitality Industry (General) Award 2010 ('Hospitality Award'), Restaurant Industry Award 2010 ('Restaurants Award') and Registered and Licenced Clubs Award 2010 ('Clubs Award') (collectively :the Hospitality Awards'), there are 2 claims within the part time and casual employment common issue proceedings that are coming up for hearing that United Voice is interested in.

The first is as a respondent to claims concerning variations to the part time work clauses in the Hospitality Award and Restaurant Award made by the Australian Hotels Association and Clubs Australia. The Applicants evidence is being heard during the 12-13 July 2016 hearings. United Voice on 22 February 2016 filed evidence in reply to these matters.

The second matter is an application by United Voice for overtime for casuals under the Hospitality. This claim is listed for the 16 to 17 August hearings.

The evidence in reply to the part time employment claims is listed for hearing in the 16 to 17 August hearings. This material comprises:

- statement of Keith Harvey, 22 February 2016;
- statement of Alexandra Kindness, 17 February 2016;
- statement of Marilyn Whitfield, 13 February 2016; and
- statement of XXXXXXX, 18 February 2016 (this witness wants to maintain anonymity)

The undersigned is taking some leave and Mr Stefan Russell-Uren will appear for United Voice in the July hearings. On reviewing the work ahead, we thought it was useful to write to the Commission and also our colleagues to ensure that it is understood that currently in the August hearings evidence is listed for these 2 claims. The main practical implication is that this will affect the timing of any written submissions for the part time employment claims.
