Dear Associate

Apologies, yes the submissions that ABI and NSW Business Chamber are relying on are the ones dated 14 March as attached to your email correspondence.

Please let us know if there are other questions or queries we can assist with.

Thank you kindly

Sincerely
Zoe McQuillan

Dear Mr Murphy and Ms McQuillan

I am emailing you to clarify certain aspects of your correspondence dated 15 June 2018. In your letter, you refer to NSWBC and ABI's submissions of 24 July 2017. It does not appear that any submissions were filed by ABI on that date though. There are submissions dated 14 March 2017 (available here). Can you please advise Chambers whether you rely on the submissions 14 March 2017? If you rely on submissions of 24 July 2017, can you please email a copy of the submissions to Chambers?

Regards

Peter

Dear Associate

AM2014/227 - FITNESS INDUSTRY AWARD 2010

We refer to the above proceedings in which we have acted for NSW Business Chamber Limited and Australian Business Industrial, which are listed for hearing on 26 and 27 June 2018.

NSWBC and ABI write to advise that it will not be in attendance at the abovementioned hearing. However, NSWBC and ABI still rely on its submissions dated 24 July 2017. These submissions continue to be relevant to the positions taken by the parties in the proceedings with respect to question of whether and where in the classification structure changes should be made to incorporate a 'trainee swim instructor'.

We commend these submissions to the Fair Work Commission in their deliberations.

Should you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact Zoe McQuillan on the number below.

Yours sincerely

Joe Murphy
