Dear Mr Arndt,

I refer to your email below and advise that your request was referred to the President and His Honour has granted the extension. Submissions are now due to be filed by close of business today.

AWU is granted an extension for filing any submissions in reply until close of business Thursday 7 April 2016.

Regards,

Dear Associate

We refer to our email dated 8 March 2016 and to your reply dated 9 March 2016.

As noted by your email, we had been granted an extension in which to file reply submissions in this matter until 10 March 2016 with the AWU being required to file any further submissions in reply by 23 March 2016.

We regret that our office's involvement in the Casual and Part-Time proceedings has prevented us from filing these submissions in a timely manner.

We sincerely apologise for our lateness.

We will be in a position to file our submissions by close of business tomorrow and seek leave to do so.

We have liaised with the AWU in relation to this delay and do not oppose the granting of an equivalent extension to the AWU in filing any submissions in reply.

Yours sincerely

Julian Arndt
