Dear Associate

We understand that each of the employer parties have done, or intend to, file their own documents in respect of a draft circulated by the AMWU to the parties, indicating which of its variations are agreed or opposed. Accordingly the extension would not prejudice the other parties. We apologise for the confusion in this regard.

If it would assist the Commission we can certainly seek the views of the other parties in this regard.

Many thanks

Kind regards

Kate Thomson

Subject: RE: AM2016/3 Proposed Helicopter Aircrew Award

Dear Ms Thomson,

The directions envisage that the parties would file a document together setting out the variation to the Air Pilots Award 2010 they seek or are prepared to consent to. Accordingly, it is unclear how an extension to ABI and the NSWBC alone would practically operate. Could you please advise what the position of the AMWU and the other parties is in relation to this?

Kind regards,

Dear Associate

AM2016/3 Proposed Helicopter Aircrew Award

We refer to the above matter in which we act on behalf of ABI and the NSW Business Chamber. We also refer to the directions issued by his Honour dated 22 November 2019.

Regrettably, we will be unable to comply with direction (4) by the deadline of 5:00pm today. Accordingly, we respectfully seek an extension to 8 January 2019 (due to leave commitments).

Please let me know if you require any further information. We thank the Commission for consideration of this request and apologise for any inconvenience caused.

Yours sincerely
