5. Effect of variations made by the Fair Work Commission

A variation to this award does not affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability that a person acquired, accrued or incurred under the award as it existed prior to that variation.

6. Award flexibility for individual arrangements

6.1 Notwithstanding any other provision of this award, an employer and an individual employee may agree to vary the application of certain terms of this award to meet the genuine individual needs of the employer and the individual employee. - (a) be confined to a variation in the application of one or more of the terms listed in clause 6.1; and

 - (ii) specifying the roster that the employee will work (including the actual starting and finishing times for each shift) together with days or parts of days on which the employee will not be rostered.
- (d) Any agreed variation to the regular pattern of work must be recorded in writing.
- (e) An employer is required to roster a part-time employee for a minimum of three consecutive hours on any shift.

10.2 Interim provision

In respect of part-time employees engaged before 1 January 2015, the following provisions will also apply:

- (b) where the pattern of ordinary hours is set by a roster under clause 10.2(a), any hours worked in addition to the rostered ordinary hours will be overtime and paid for at the rates prescribed in clause 23—Overtime.

11. Casual employees

Casual employment provisions may be affected by AM2014/197

11.1 A casual employee is an employee who is engaged and paid as a casual employee.

11.2 Casual loading

11.3 Clause 24.4—Late and early work penalty applies to casual employees.

Parties are asked whether a maintenance and horticultural employee may be engaged on a casual basis; and if so, do the percentages in clause 24.1 or 24.2 apply?

11.4 Casual employees must be paid at the termination of each engagement, but may agree to be paid weekly or fortnightly.

11.5 A casual employee (other than a casual employee engaged solely as a bingo caller or assistant bingo caller) is entitled to a minimum payment for two hours' work on each occasion that they are required to attend work. A casual employee engaged solely as a bingo caller or an assistant bingo caller is entitled to a minimum payment for three hours' work.

- (a) This clause only applies to a regular casual employee.

- (i) the form of employment to which the employee will convert; that is, full-time or part-time employment; and
 - (ii) if it is agreed that the employee will become a part-time employee, the matters referred to in clause 10—Part-time employees.
- (h) The date from which the conversion will take effect is the commencement of the next pay cycle following such agreement being reached unless otherwise agreed.
- (i) Once a casual employee has converted to full-time or part-time employment, the employee may only revert to casual employment with the written agreement of the employer.
- (j) An employee must not be engaged and/or re-engaged (which includes a refusal to re-engage) to avoid any obligation under this award.
- (k) Nothing in this clause requires:
- (i) a casual employee to convert to full-time or part-time employment, nor permits an employer to require a casual employee to so convert;
 - (ii) the employer to convert the employment of a regular casual employee to full-time or part-time employment if the employee has not worked for 12 months or more in a particular establishment or in a particular classification stream; or

12. Apprentices

- 12.1 Apprentices will be engaged in accordance with relevant apprenticeship legislation and be paid in accordance with clause 18.6.

- 12.2 An apprentice under the age of 18 years will not, without the employee's consent, be required to work overtime, shiftwork or late work.
- 12.3 No apprentice will, except in an emergency, work or be required to work overtime or shiftwork at times which would prevent their attendance at training consistent with their training contract.
- 12.4 Except as provided in this clause or where otherwise stated, all conditions of employment specified in this award apply to apprentices.
- 12.5 Where an apprentice is required to attend block release training for training identified in or associated with their training contract, and such training requires an overnight stay, the employer must pay for the excess reasonable travel costs incurred by the apprentice in the course of travelling to and from such training. Provided that this clause will not apply where the apprentice could attend an alternative Registered Training Organisation (RTO) and the use of the more distant RTO is not agreed between the employer and the apprentice.
- 12.6 For the purposes of clause 12.5, excess reasonable travel costs include the total costs of reasonable transportation (including transportation of tools where required), accommodation costs incurred while travelling (where necessary) and reasonable expenses incurred while travelling, including meals, which exceed those incurred in travelling to and from work. For the purposes of this subclause, excess travel costs do not include payment for travelling time or expenses incurred while not travelling to and from block release training.
- 12.7 The amount payable by an employer under clause 12.5 may be reduced by an amount the apprentice is eligible to receive for travel costs to attend block release training under a Government apprentice assistance scheme. This will only apply if an apprentice has either received such assistance or their employer has advised them in writing of the availability of such assistance.
- 12.8 All training fees charged by an RTO for prescribed courses and the cost of all prescribed textbooks (excluding those textbooks which are available in the employer's technical library) for the apprenticeship, which are paid by an apprentice, shall be reimbursed by the employer within six months of the commencement of the apprenticeship or the relevant stage of the apprenticeship, or within three months of the commencement of the training provided by the RTO, whichever is the later, unless there is unsatisfactory progress.
- 12.9 An employer may meet its obligations under clause 12.8 by paying any fees and/or cost of textbooks directly to the RTO.
- 12.10 An apprentice is entitled to be released from work without loss of continuity of employment and to payment of the appropriate wages to attend any training and assessment specified in, or associated with, the training contract.
- 12.11 Time spent by an apprentice in attending any training and/or assessment specified in, or associated with, the training contract is to be regarded as time worked for the employer for the purposes of calculating the apprentice's wages and determining the apprentice's employment conditions. This subclause operates subject to the provisions of Schedule F—School-based Apprentices.

13. Junior employees

- 13.1 Junior employees employed in the bar or other places where liquor is sold must be paid at the adult rate of pay in clause 18.3 for the appropriate classification.

- 13.2 An employer may at any time require the production of a birth certificate or other satisfactory proof for the purpose of ascertaining the correct age of a junior employee. If a birth certificate is required, the cost of it must be covered by the employer.
- 13.3 No employee under the age of 18 years will be required to work more than 10 hours in a shift.

- (c) The employer must pay the amount authorised under clauses 21.3(a) or (b) no later than 28 days after the end of the month in which the deduction authorised under clauses 21.3(a) or (b) was made.

21.4 Superannuation fund

Unless, to comply with superannuation legislation, the employer is required to make the superannuation contributions provided for in clause 21.2 to another superannuation fund that is chosen by the employee, the employer must make the superannuation contributions provided for in clause 21.2 and pay the amount authorised under clauses 21.3(a) or (b) to one of the following superannuation funds or its successor:

- (a) Club Plus Superannuation Pty Limited;
- (b) Club Super;
- (c) HOSTPLUS;
- (d) Sunsuper;
- (e) Tasplan;
- (f) AustralianSuper;
- (g) any superannuation fund to which the employer was making superannuation contributions for the benefit of its employees before 12 September 2008, provided the superannuation fund is an eligible choice fund and is a fund that offers a MySuper product or is an exempt public sector superannuation scheme; or
- (h) a superannuation fund or scheme which the employee is a defined benefit member of.

21.5 Absence from work

Subject to the governing rules of the relevant superannuation fund, the employer must also make the superannuation contributions provided for in clause 21.2 and pay the amount authorised under clauses 21.3(a) or (b):

- (a) Paid leave—while the employee is on any paid leave;

- (b) Work-related injury or illness—for the period of absence from work of the employee due to work-related injury or work-related illness provided that:
- (i) the employee is receiving workers compensation payments or is receiving regular payments directly from the employer in accordance with the statutory requirements; and
 - (ii) the employee remains employed by the employer.

Part 5—Overtime and Penalty Rates

Penalty rates may be affected by AM2014/305

22. Recall to duty—club managers

22.1 An employee recalled to work any overtime in one or more periods after having left the club premises will be paid for a minimum of one hour's work at overtime rates when the overtime is worked after the end of the ordinary hours of one shift and before the start of ordinary hours of the next shift. Clause 22.1 applies whether the employee was notified before or after having left the premises.

22.2 Under clause 22.1:

- (a) Overtime is not required to be paid when the recall to work is because of the failure of the employee to perform a duty or function during the employee's ordinary working hours.
- (b) The employee will not be paid for the time spent travelling to and from the club on a recall.

23. Overtime

This provision may be affected by AM2014/300 – see draft determination

23.1 An employer may require any full-time or part-time employee to work reasonable overtime at overtime rates.

23.2 All time worked in excess of the hours and/or outside the spread of hours or outside the rostered hours prescribed in Part 3—Hours of Work will be overtime and will be paid for at the following rates:

- (a) Monday to Friday inclusive—150% of the ordinary hourly rate for the first two hours and 200% of the ordinary hourly rate for all work after two hours;
- (b) between midnight Friday and midnight Saturday—175% of the ordinary hourly rate for the first two hours and 200% of the ordinary hourly rate for all work after two hours;
- (c) between midnight Saturday and midnight Sunday—200% of the ordinary hourly rate for all time worked;
- (d) all work performed on a public holiday—250% of the ordinary hourly rate for all time worked, with a minimum payment of four hours;

- (e) all work performed on an employee’s rostered day off—200% of the ordinary hourly rate, with a minimum payment of four hours.

23.3 Overtime on any day will stand alone.

23.4 If an employee works so much overtime that the employee has not had 10 hours’ rest before the employee’s next regular starting time, the employee will be allowed at least 10 hours’ rest without loss of pay or will be paid at overtime rates for all working time until the employee has had at least eight hours’ rest.

23.5 Notwithstanding the rates prescribed in clause 23.2 at the instigation of the employee there may be an agreement in writing between the employee and the employer to take time off with pay equivalent to the amount for which payment would otherwise have been made. Such accumulated time must be taken within four weeks from the time of accrual.

23.6 An apprentice under the age of 18 years will not, without the employee’s consent, be required to work overtime, shiftwork or late work.

23.7 A full-time or part-time employee required to work overtime for more than two hours without being notified on the previous day or earlier of the requirement to work will be either supplied with a meal by the employer or be paid the allowance prescribed in clause 19.3(a).

24. Penalty rates

This clause may be affected by AM2014/305

24.1 An employee other than a maintenance and horticultural employee performing work on the following days will be paid the following percentage of the ordinary hourly rate for the relevant classification:

| | Monday to Friday | Saturday | Sunday | Public holiday |
|--|----------------------------------|-----------------|---------------|-----------------------|
| | % of ordinary hourly rate | | | |
| Full-time and part-time employees | 100 | 150 | 175 | 250 |
| Casual employees (inclusive of the 25% casual loading) | 125 | 150 | 175 | 250 |

24.2 A maintenance and horticultural employee performing work on the following days will be paid the following percentage of the ordinary hourly rate for the relevant classification:

| Monday to Friday and Saturday before 12 noon | Saturday after 12 noon | Sunday | Public holiday |
|---|--------------------------------------|---------------|-----------------------|
| 100% | 150% for the first 2 hours then 200% | 200% | 250% |

24.3 Public holidays

This provision may be affected by AM2014/301

- (a) An employee other than a casual employee working on a public holiday will be paid for a minimum of four hours' work.
- (b) Employees other than maintenance or horticultural employees who work on a prescribed holiday may, by agreement, work at 150% of the ordinary hourly rate, instead of the penalty rate prescribed in clause 24.1, provided that:
 - (i) equivalent paid time is added to the employee's annual leave; or
 - (ii) an alternative day off instead of the public holiday may be taken during the week in which the holiday falls, or will be allowed to the employee within 28 days of the holiday falling due.
- (c) An employee other than a casual working on Christmas Day when it falls on a weekend will be paid 150% of the ordinary hourly rate for the hours worked on that day and will also be entitled to the benefit of a substitute day.

24.4 Late and early work penalty

Employees other than maintenance or horticultural employees will be entitled to the following additional penalty for work performed at the following times:

- (a) Monday to Friday, 7.00 pm to midnight: $2.06 per hour or any part of an hour for such time worked within the said hours; and
- (b) Monday to Friday, midnight to 7.00 am: $3.09 per hour or any part of an hour for such time worked within the said hours.

See Schedule B.7 for method of adjusting the rates in clause 24.4.

Parties are asked to comment on how the evening and night penalties in clause 24.4 apply in circumstances where an employee performs work for part of an hour. That is, whether the penalties in clause 24.4 are payable in units of whole hours only or are payable on a pro-rata basis for part hours worked.

For example, if an employee worked from 7:00pm to 9:30 pm (2.5 penalty hours) it may be unclear whether the employee should be paid:

- 2.5 hours (that is, pro-rata payment for "such time worked" within the said hours) x $2.06 = $5.15; or
- 3 hours (that is, one unit of payment for the commencement of each "hour or part of an hour" worked) x $2.06 = $6.18.

24.5 Penalty rates not cumulative

Except as provided in clause 17—Meal breaks, where time worked is required to be paid for at more than the ordinary hourly rate, the penalty which is to the employee's greatest advantage will apply to the exclusion of other penalties.

Part 6—Leave and Public Holidays

25. Annual leave

25.1 Leave entitlement

- (a) Annual leave is provided for in the NES. It does not apply to casual employees.
- (b) For the purpose of the additional week of leave provided by the NES, a shiftworker means a seven day shiftworker who is regularly rostered to work on Sundays and public holidays, and includes a club manager.

25.2 The NES prescribes the basis for payment for annual leave, including payment for untaken leave upon the termination of employment.

25.3 In addition to the payment provided for in the NES, an employer is required to pay an additional leave loading of 17.5% of that payment.

25.4 Close-down

An employer may require an employee to take annual leave as part of a close-down of its operations, by giving at least four weeks' notice.

25.5 Excessive leave accruals: general provision

Note: Clauses 25.5 to 25.7 contain provisions, additional to the National Employment Standards, about the taking of paid annual leave as a way of dealing with the accrual of excessive paid annual leave. See Part 2.2, Division 6 of the Fair Work Act.

- (a) An employee has an excessive leave accrual if the employee has accrued more than 8 weeks' paid annual leave (or 10 weeks' paid annual leave for a shiftworker, as defined by clause 25.1).
- (b) If an employee has an excessive leave accrual, the employer or the employee may seek to confer with the other and genuinely try to reach agreement on how to reduce or eliminate the excessive leave accrual.
- (c) Clause 25.6 sets out how an employer may direct an employee who has an excessive leave accrual to take paid annual leave.
- (d) Clause 25.7 sets out how an employee who has an excessive leave accrual may require an employer to grant paid annual leave requested by the employee.

25.6 Excessive leave accruals: direction by employer that leave be taken

- (a) If an employer has genuinely tried to reach agreement with an employee under clause 25.5(b) but agreement is not reached (including because the employee refuses to confer), the employer may direct the employee in writing to take one or more periods of paid annual leave.
- (b) However, a direction by the employer under paragraph (a):
 - (i) is of no effect if it would result at any time in the employee's remaining accrued entitlement to paid annual leave being less than 6 weeks when any other paid annual leave arrangements (whether made under clause 25.5, 25.6 or 25.7 or otherwise agreed by the employer and employee) are taken into account; and

- (ii) must not require the employee to take any period of paid annual leave of less than one week; and
 - (iii) must not require the employee to take a period of paid annual leave beginning less than 8 weeks, or more than 12 months, after the direction is given; and
 - (iv) must not be inconsistent with any leave arrangement agreed by the employer and employee.
- (c) The employee must take paid annual leave in accordance with a direction under paragraph (a) that is in effect.
- (d) An employee to whom a direction has been given under paragraph (a) may request to take a period of paid annual leave as if the direction had not been given.

Note 1: Paid annual leave arising from a request mentioned in paragraph (d) may result in the direction ceasing to have effect. See clause 25.6(b)(i).

Note 2: Under section 88(2) of the Fair Work Act, the employer must not unreasonably refuse to agree to a request by the employee to take paid annual leave.

25.7 Excessive leave accruals: request by employee for leave

- (a) Clause 25.7 comes into operation from 29 July 2017.
- (b) If an employee has genuinely tried to reach agreement with an employer under clause 25.5(b) but agreement is not reached (including because the employer refuses to confer), the employee may give a written notice to the employer requesting to take one or more periods of paid annual leave.
- (c) However, an employee may only give a notice to the employer under paragraph (b) if:
 - (i) the employee has had an excessive leave accrual for more than 6 months at the time of giving the notice; and
 - (ii) the employee has not been given a direction under clause 25.6(a) that, when any other paid annual leave arrangements (whether made under clause 25.5, 25.6 or 25.7 or otherwise agreed by the employer and employee) are taken into account, would eliminate the employee's excessive leave accrual.
- (d) A notice given by an employee under paragraph (b) must not:
 - (i) if granted, result in the employee's remaining accrued entitlement to paid annual leave being at any time less than 6 weeks when any other paid annual leave arrangements (whether made under clause 25.5, 25.6 or 25.7 or otherwise agreed by the employer and employee) are taken into account; or

- (ii) provide for the employee to take any period of paid annual leave of less than one week; or
 - (iii) provide for the employee to take a period of paid annual leave beginning less than 8 weeks, or more than 12 months, after the notice is given; or
 - (iv) be inconsistent with any leave arrangement agreed by the employer and employee.
- (e) An employee is not entitled to request by a notice under paragraph (b) more than 4 weeks' paid annual leave (or 5 weeks' paid annual leave for a shiftworker, as defined by clause 25.1) in any period of 12 months.
- (f) The employer must grant paid annual leave requested by a notice under paragraph (b).

25.8 Annual leave in advance

- (a) An employer and employee may agree in writing to the employee taking a period of paid annual leave before the employee has accrued an entitlement to the leave.
- (b) An agreement must:
- (i) state the amount of leave to be taken in advance and the date on which leave is to commence; and
 - (ii) be signed by the employer and employee and, if the employee is under 18 years of age, by the employee's parent or guardian.

Note: An example of the type of agreement required by clause 25.8 is set out at Schedule G. There is no requirement to use the form of agreement set out at Schedule G.

- (c) The employer must keep a copy of any agreement under clause 25.8 as an employee record.
- (d) If, on the termination of the employee's employment, the employee has not accrued an entitlement to all of a period of paid annual leave already taken in accordance with an agreement under clause 25.8, the employer may deduct from any money due to the employee on termination an amount equal to the amount that was paid to the employee in respect of any part of the period of annual leave taken in advance to which an entitlement has not been accrued.

25.9 Cashing out of annual leave

- (a) Paid annual leave must not be cashed out except in accordance with an agreement under clause 25.9.
- (b) Each cashing out of a particular amount of paid annual leave must be the subject of a separate agreement under clause 25.9.
- (c) An employer and an employee may agree in writing to the cashing out of a particular amount of accrued paid annual leave by the employee.
- (d) An agreement under clause 25.9 must state:

- (i) the amount of leave to be cashed out and the payment to be made to the employee for it; and
 - (ii) the date on which the payment is to be made.
- (e) An agreement under clause 25.9 must be signed by the employer and employee and, if the employee is under 18 years of age, by the employee's parent or guardian.
 - (f) The payment must not be less than the amount that would have been payable had the employee taken the leave at the time the payment is made.
 - (g) An agreement must not result in the employee's remaining accrued entitlement to paid annual leave being less than 4 weeks.
 - (h) The maximum amount of accrued paid annual leave that may be cashed out in any period of 12 months is 2 weeks.
 - (i) The employer must keep a copy of any agreement under clause 25.9 as an employee record.

Note 1: Under section 344 of the Fair Work Act, an employer must not exert undue influence or undue pressure on an employee to make, or not make, an agreement under clause 25.9.

Note 2: Under section 345(1) of the Fair Work Act, a person must not knowingly or recklessly make a false or misleading representation about the workplace rights of another person under clause 25.9.

Note 3: An example of the type of agreement required by clause 25.9 is set out at Schedule H. There is no requirement to use the form of agreement set out at Schedule H.

Personal/carer's leave and compassionate leave are provided for in the NES.

27. Parental leave and related entitlements

Parental leave and related entitlements are provided for in the NES.

28. Public holidays

This provision may be affected by AM2014/301

28.1 Public holiday entitlements are provided for in the NES.

28.2 By agreement between the employer and the majority of employees in the relevant enterprise or section of the enterprise, an alternative day may be taken as the public holiday instead of any of the days prescribed in s.115 of the Act.

28.3 Additional arrangements for full-time employees

- (a) A full-time employee whose rostered day off falls on a public holiday must, subject to clause 24.3:

- (c) A full-time employee who works on a public holiday which is subject to substitution as provided for by the NES will be entitled to the benefit of the substitute day.

28.4 An employee who works on a public holiday will be paid in accordance with clause 24—Penalty rates.

28.5 Part-day public holidays

For provisions relating to part-day public holidays see Schedule I—2016 Part-day Public Holidays.

29. Community service leave

Community service leave is provided for in the NES.

30. Professional development leave—club managers

30.1 This clause applies only to club managers.

30.2 In order to facilitate progression through the classification structure, a club manager is entitled to five days' paid professional development leave in each calendar year, subject to the provisions of this clause.

30.3 Professional development leave is only available for the purpose of undertaking continuing education and industry activity programs.

30.4 The entitlement to paid professional development leave is dependent on:

- (a) the employee providing the club with at least 28 days' notice, or a lesser period as mutually agreed, of the dates on which the employee seeks to take professional development leave;
- (b) the granting of leave not unduly affecting the operation of the club; and
- (c) the employee agreeing to provide, if requested by the club, a report outlining the potential benefits of the training undertaken to the operation of the club.

30.5 The club will reimburse an employee for any costs associated with undertaking continuing education programs and industry activities.

Part 7—Consultation and Dispute Resolution

31. Consultation about major workplace change

31.1 Employers to notify

- (a) Where an employer has made a definite decision to introduce major changes in production, program, organisation, structure or technology that are likely to have significant effects on employees, the employer must notify the employees who may be affected by the proposed changes and their representatives, if any.
- (b) Significant effects include termination of employment; major changes in the composition, operation or size of the employer's workforce or in the skills required; the elimination or diminution of job opportunities, promotion opportunities or job tenure; the alteration of hours of work; the need for retraining or transfer of employees to other work or locations; and the restructuring of jobs. Provided that where this award makes provision for alteration of any of these matters an alteration is deemed not to have significant effect.

31.2 Employers to discuss change

- (a) The employer must discuss with the employees affected and their representatives, if any, the introduction of the changes referred to in clause 31.1, the effects the changes are likely to have on employees and measures to avert or mitigate the adverse effects of such changes on employees and must give prompt consideration to matters raised by the employees and/or their representatives in relation to the changes.
- (b) The discussions must commence as early as practicable after a definite decision has been made by the employer to make the changes referred to in clause 31.1.
- (c) For the purposes of such discussion, the employer must provide in writing to the employees concerned and their representatives, if any, all relevant information about the changes including the nature of the changes proposed, the expected effects of the changes on employees and any other matters likely to affect employees provided that no employer is required to disclose confidential information the disclosure of which would be contrary to the employer's interests.

32. Consultation about changes to rosters or hours of work

32.1 Where an employer proposes to change an employee's regular roster or ordinary hours of work, the employer must consult with the employee or employees affected and their representatives, if any, about the proposed change.

32.2 The employer must:

- (b) invite the employee or employees affected and their representatives, if any, to give their views about the impact of the proposed change (including any impact in relation to their family or caring responsibilities); and
- (c) give consideration to any views about the impact of the proposed change that are given by the employee or employees concerned and/or their representatives.

32.3 The requirement to consult under this clause does not apply where an employee has irregular, sporadic or unpredictable working hours.

32.4 These provisions are to be read in conjunction with other award provisions concerning the scheduling of work and notice requirements.

33. Dispute resolution

33.1 In the event of a dispute about a matter under this award, or a dispute in relation to the NES, in the first instance the parties must attempt to resolve the matter at the workplace by discussions between the employee or employees concerned and the relevant supervisor. If such discussions do not resolve the dispute, the parties will endeavour to resolve the dispute in a timely manner by discussions between the employee or employees concerned and more senior levels of management as appropriate.

33.2 If a dispute about a matter arising under this award or a dispute in relation to the NES is unable to be resolved at the workplace, and all appropriate steps under clause 33.1 have been taken, a party to the dispute may refer the dispute to the Fair Work Commission.

33.3 The parties may agree on the process to be utilised by the Fair Work Commission including mediation, conciliation and consent arbitration.

33.4 Where the matter in dispute remains unresolved, the Fair Work Commission may exercise any method of dispute resolution permitted by the Act that it considers appropriate to ensure the settlement of the dispute.

33.5 An employer or employee may appoint another person, organisation or association to accompany and/or represent them for the purposes of this clause.

33.6 While the dispute resolution procedure is being conducted, work must continue in accordance with this award and the Act. Subject to applicable occupational health and safety legislation, an employee must not unreasonably fail to comply with a direction by the employer to perform work, whether at the same or another workplace that is safe and appropriate for the employee to perform.

Part 8—Termination of Employment and Redundancy

34. Termination of employment

34.1 Notice of termination is provided for in the NES.

34.2 Notice of termination by an employee

The notice of termination required to be given by an employee is the same as that required of an employer except that there is no requirement on the employee to give additional notice based on the age of the employee concerned. If an employee fails to give the required notice the employer may withhold from any monies due to the employee on termination under this award or the NES, an amount not exceeding the amount the employee would have been paid under this award in respect of the period of notice required by this clause less any period of notice actually given by the employee.

35. Redundancy

Redundancy pay is provided for in the NES.

36. Transfer to lower paid job on redundancy

Where an employee is transferred to lower paid duties by reason of redundancy, the same period of notice must be given as the employee would have been entitled to if the employment had been terminated and the employer may, at the employer's option, make payment instead of an amount equal to the difference between the former ordinary time rate of pay and the ordinary time rate of pay for the number of weeks of notice still owing.

37. Employee leaving during redundancy notice period

An employee given notice of termination in circumstances of redundancy may terminate their employment during the period of notice. The employee is entitled to receive the benefits and payments they would have received under clause 35—Redundancy had they remained in employment until the expiry of the notice, but is not entitled to payment instead of notice.

38. Job search entitlement

38.1 Job search entitlement for notice of termination of employment

Where an employer has given notice of termination to an employee, an employee must be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay for the purpose of seeking other employment. The time off is to be taken at times that are convenient to the employee after consultation with the employer.

38.2 Job search entitlement—redundancy

(a) Time off for seeking other employment

An employee given notice of termination in circumstances of redundancy must be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay during each week of notice for the purpose of seeking other employment.

(b) Proof of attendance

If the employee has been allowed paid leave for more than one day during the notice period for the purpose of seeking other employment, the employee must, at the request of the employer, produce proof of attendance at an interview or they will not be entitled to payment for the time absent. For this purpose a statutory declaration is sufficient.

Part 9—Industry Specific Provisions

39. Accommodation—club managers

- 39.1 Where a club provides accommodation for a club manager, a club manager and spouse or de facto partner, or a club manager, spouse or de facto partner and dependent children, the club will be entitled to deduct an amount agreed in writing between the club and the employee, from the employee's wages for rental of such accommodation.
- 39.2 A written agreement entered into by a club and its employee under this clause must contain a provision specifying the method by which the agreed deduction for accommodation may be varied and the dates upon which the review is to take place.

- F.2 A school-based apprenticeship may be undertaken in the trades covered by this award under a training agreement or contract of training for an apprentice declared or recognised by the relevant State or Territory authority.
- F.3 The relevant minimum wages for full-time junior and adult apprentices provided for in this award, calculated hourly, will apply to school-based apprentices for total hours worked including time deemed to be spent in off-the-job training.
- F.4 For the purposes of clause F.3, where an apprentice is a full-time school student, the time spent in off-the-job training for which the apprentice must be paid is 25% of the actual hours worked each week on-the-job. The wages paid for training time may be averaged over the semester or year.
- F.5 A school-based apprentice must be allowed, over the duration of the apprenticeship, the same amount of time to attend off-the-job training as an equivalent full-time apprentice.
- F.6 For the purposes of this schedule, off-the-job training is structured training delivered by a Registered Training Organisation separate from normal work duties or general supervised practice undertaken on the job.

The rate of progression reflects the average rate of skill acquisition expected from the typical combination of work and training for a school-based apprentice undertaking the applicable apprenticeship.
- F.10 If an apprentice converts from school-based to full-time, the successful completion of competencies (if provided for in this award) and all time spent as a full-time apprentice will count for the purposes of progression through the relevant wage scale in addition to the progression achieved as a school-based apprentice.
